

No. DCH/2024/ 1827

Date: 27/03/2025

Report on the Awareness Programme on Introduction of New Criminal Laws in Indian Constitution

An informative and engaging awareness programme on the newly introduced three criminal laws in the Indian Constitution was held at Government Degree College Handwara on 24th of March, 2025. The event was organized by the Jammu and Kashmir Police department in collaboration with GDC Handwara.

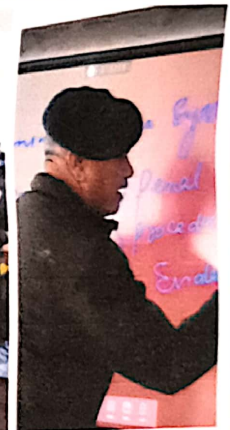

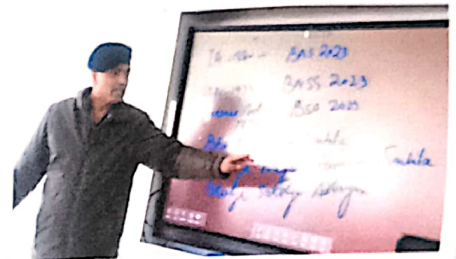

The primary objective of the programme was to familiarize the college community with the key aspects of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita and Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam which have been recently enacted.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome address by the worthy Principal of GDC Handwara, Prof. GR Ganai, who highlighted the significance of legal literacy among students and faculty members.

Following the welcome address, the Deputy Superintendent of Police (DSP) Handwara, Mr. Mohammad Shafiq delivered a comprehensive and insightful lecture. As the resource person for the event, he elaborated on the key provisions, objectives and implications of the new criminal laws. His detailed presentation made the audience aware of the transformative changes brought by these legislations, focusing on their role in ensuring justice, protecting citizens, and strengthening the legal system.

The session was highly interactive, with students and faculty members engaging in discussions and seeking clarifications on various aspects of the laws. The resource person effectively addressed queries, enhancing participants understanding of the subject matter.

The programme concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Gh Nabi Najar, NSS Programme Officer, who expressed gratitude to the Jammu and Kashmir Police, the resource person and all attendees for their active participation.

Principal