Report on Pre-Admission Counselling Session for FYUGP Aspirants 2025-2026

The College Admission Committee of Government Degree College Handwara organized a comprehensive Pre-Admission Counselling Session for prospective students of the Four-Year Undergraduate Programme (FYUGP) on 18th June 2025 in the college Auditorium Hall. The event aimed to guide aspirants from adjoining areas seeking admission various courses for the academic session 2025–2026 under the newly implemented National Education Policy (NEP) framework.

The session commenced with a formal welcome address by Prof. Sajad Ahmad Shah, Convenor College admission Committee, outlining the FYUGP structure, admission timelines and academic opportunities. Worthy Principal Prof. G. R. Ganaie presided over the event, delivering an in-depth address on the multidisciplinary curriculum, skill-integrated courses under FYUGP. Prof. G.R. Ganaie elaborated on admission procedures, infrastructure facilities and future academic pathways.

The programme also featured detailed interactive sessions between the students and the faculty members of the college. Heads of Departments (HoDs) and subject experts from various academic streams briefed the aspirants about the scope, structure and future career prospects of their respective subjects.

The counselling session was aimed at providing clarity and guidance to the students to help them make informed academic choices based on their interests and aptitude. It also served as an important orientation on the newly restructured curriculum, admission procedures and institutional facilities available for the students.

The session concluded with a formal vote of Thanks presented by Dr. Latief Ahmad Dar, HoD Political Science, who expressed gratitude to the Worthy Principal for his visionary leadership, the dedicated faculty members for their informative contributions and all the participating students for their active involvement.
