Report on Induction Programme for BG 1st Semester NEP Batch 2025

The Induction Programme for the BG 1st Semester NEP Batch 2025 was jointly organized by the Admission and Academic affairs Committee in collaboration with the Dean Students Welfare, GDC Handwara on 11th of August, 2025. The event was moderated by Prof. Ajaz Ahmad Magray, who warmly addressed the gathering. In his inaugural remarks, he highlighted the transition from school-level learning to the higher education framework, emphasizing that college education is more research-oriented and equips students with analytical and critical thinking skills essential for their academic and professional journey.

The worthy principal of the College, Prof. G. R Ganaie, extended a heartfelt welcome to the newly admitted students. He congratulated them on successfully stepping into the realm of higher education and urged them to utilize their precious time wisely. Stressing the importance of good health, discipline and responsibility, he encouraged students to attend classes regularly and maintain the mandatory 75% attendance. He also inspired them to participate actively in the extracurricular and co-curricular activities of the college, which are integral to holistic development.

The programme then continued with insightful addresses by distinguished faculty members. Prof. Rehana Abdullah, Head of the English Department, guided the students about the college code of conduct. She emphasized being regular, punctual and wearing the proper uniform. Following this, Prof. Sajad Ahmad Shah, HOD of Computer Applications, provided a detailed overview of the college academics and the class timetable. Prof. Ali Mohammad Peer, Head of the History Department, elaborated on the benefits of higher education, shedding light on the vast opportunities it opens up for students in terms of personal growth, career advancement, and contribution to society.
