Report on the Observance of World Health Day, 2025

The NSS Units of Government Degree College Handwara organized an inspiring programme to observe World Health Day on 7th April 2025, aiming to raise awareness about health and well-being among students and staff.

The programme commenced under the moderation of Dr. Gh Nabi Najar, NSS Programme Officer, who warmly welcomed the participants. The event began on a spiritually uplifting note with the recitation of Tilawat from the Holy Qur'an by Ayesha Sofi (Student of 4th Semester), followed by a soulful Naat recitation by Kouseer Jaan,

Prof. Nisar Ahmad Lone, Senior Assistant Professor delivered the Introductory Remarks, highlighting the significance of World Health Day and the role of educational institutions in promoting health literacy. Worthy Principal of GDC Handwara, Prof. G.R. Ganaie, presented the welcome address, expressing appreciation for the participation of students, faculty and emphasized the importance of a collective approach toward health and wellness.

A special highlight of the programme was the extension lecture delivered by resource persons Dr. Mehrajuddin Bhat, HoD Clinical Biochemistry and Dr. Mudasir Mohammad, HoD Veterinary Science, who enlightened the audience with their in-depth knowledge on current health challenges, the importance of preventive care and healthy lifestyle practices. Their talk was engaging, informative and tailored to address the health concerns relevant to the student community.

The programme also featured motivational speeches by students, showcasing their awareness and enthusiasm for health issues. Ulfat Ameen delivered the first speech, followed by Muneebul Islam, and the third speech was presented by Iqbal Ahad. Their words resonated with the audience, reflecting the impact of health education among the youth.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Prof. Ajaz Ahmad Magray, HoD Education Department, who expressed gratitude to the worthy Principal, esteemed resource persons, college administration, participating students and organizing team for making the event a great success.
